

Aeolos Apartments: Welcome

Dear guests, welcome to Aeolos Apartments which are situated in one of Crete's best kept secrets: Kolimbari. We are within this quaint traditional village with the facilities of a town: shops, cafes, pharmacy, post office, banks, super markets, seafood restaurants and marvelous beaches. We are situated 20km from the city of chania in a quiet area and our hospitable staff will help you enjoy your vacation here. Our spacious apartments consist of their own private bathroom, radio, telephone, fridge and fully equipped kitchnettes. Not to mention our balkonies overlooking the panoramic view of the Cretan Sea, where many of our guests have sat reminiscing their days adventures. Aeolos provides also private parking and a beautifull garden full of trees and flowers. Our reception offers its services to you which includes fax service, information, organising for your car rental or motorcycle to be waiting at specified location on arrival, enriching your knowledge of where to go to find the authentic Cretan villages, food, archeological sites and gorges.
